

Family Hub

Big Story Book Sessions

Coming soon to a family hub near you in June and July!

Early years lead
Philippa Marshall

Philippa, whom used to be a teacher and loved reading stories, would like to come and share some of her favourite books with your little ones.

There will be an opportunity to ask questions during the session about funding / codes / training / SEND and to meet other members of the Early Years inclusion team.

Any questions please email:
